

Dr. Meredith Henderson
Senior Director of Programs – Go Global NC

Dr. Meredith Henderson is the Senior Director of Programs at Go Global NC and is responsible for overseeing and leading the development and execution of programs for educators, policy and community leaders and business executives.

Meredith has served in roles of increasing responsibility at Go Global NC since 1999. Her experience includes leading and organizing programs to Mexico, Netherlands, Ghana, Sweden, New Zealand, India, Ireland, China, Denmark, Finland, Singapore, Germany, Japan, Malaysia and South Africa. Meredith has collaborated with East Carolina University to present a conference on best education practices for new Latino/Hispanic students in North Carolina, drawing on experiences and findings of educators who participated in Go Global NC programs to Mexico; and she has co-presented at the International Transformative Learning Conference on the use of dialogue groups to enhance learning.

Meredith earned her Ed.D. in Adult and Community College Education and a Master of Technology for International Development/Sociology from North Carolina State University, and a Bachelor of Arts in French Studies from Mount Holyoke College. She serves as the Intercultural Communication and Training Network Leader for the Teaching, Learning, and Scholarship Knowledge Community (TLSkc) with NAFSA and is a member of NAFSA's Trainer Corps. Meredith has worked in France and Canada and has a personal goal of joining the Travelers' Century Club for people who have visited 100 or more countries and territories.

mlh@northcarolina.edu | (919) 237-7953

About Go Global NC

Go Global NC, part of the UNC System since 1979, designs and manages programs that build the capacity of policy leaders, educators, students, and business and community leaders to enable North Carolina to succeed in a global economy and increasingly interdependent world. Visit goglobalnc.org to learn how Go Global NC connects North Carolina and the world.